These pages sing of the golden age
Steeped in tradition — past times and past places.
Beginning
 in the hour of our birth Tempered
 by strong hands fast minds
 and the discipline of knowledge — Mellowed
 by thoughts,
 by laughter,
 and by sport,
We arrive
 ready for the world
And the tonic of brotherhood.

Pam Strother

"I will not follow where the path may lead, but I will go where there is no path, and I will leave a trail." Muriel Strode

In your years as President of Morris Harvey College, you have confronted the unknown with unfaltering courage and steadfast devotion. You have well-marked the trail for the future of all who believe in the ideals of sound Christian character, scholarship, aesthetic appreciation, loyalty, and responsible maturity and well-being.

To you we say thank you and farewell, Dr. Leonard Rigglesman.

"It is only through labor and prayerful effort, by grim energy and resolute courage, that we move on to better things." Theodore Roosevelt.

His devoted service and interest in the student body of Morris Harvey College is reflected in his position as Vice President of the school. His scholarship has been acknowledged by degrees received from Morris Harvey, West Virginia University, Harvard Law School and Finley College. His courage and energy were displayed in World War II where he was awarded a commendation ribbon for outstanding work. He holds the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

His labor and effort in the community have granted him the Presidency of the Kanawha Welfare Council, the Vice Presidency of the Creative Arts Festival of West Virginia, Eldership in the First Presbyterian Church, membership on the Board of Directors of the Kanawha Valley United Fund and the Board of the Kanawha-Clay chapter of the American Red Cross, to mention only a few positions. He has also written an excellent biography on The Life of M.P. Shawkey.

It is with great pride that we dedicate this book to you,

MARSHALL BUCKALEW

An aerial photograph of a terraced agricultural field, likely rice paddies, with a winding path or stream cutting through the center. The terraces are arranged in a grid-like pattern, creating a series of horizontal and vertical lines. The overall tone is grayscale, with a yellowish tint on the left edge. The word "ORGANIZATIONS" is superimposed diagonally across the image in large, bold, red capital letters.

This is why I'm flunking out.

A black and white photograph of ancient stone columns in a field of ruins. The columns are tall and fluted, with some showing signs of weathering and damage. They are set against a background of other ruins and a clear sky. The overall tone is historical and somber.

OUR LEADERS

With a .006 you want to transfer to Harvard?!

If I make one more mistake . . . !

Surprise!

Put$5 on Native Dancer in the fifth.

Grrr!

Wednesday 10 a.m.—OK—everybody out!

There is never anything here stronger than coffee.

Thanks!

How many student recitals do they think I can take?

It was sure nice of the Alpha Sig's to lend us their files for our exam.

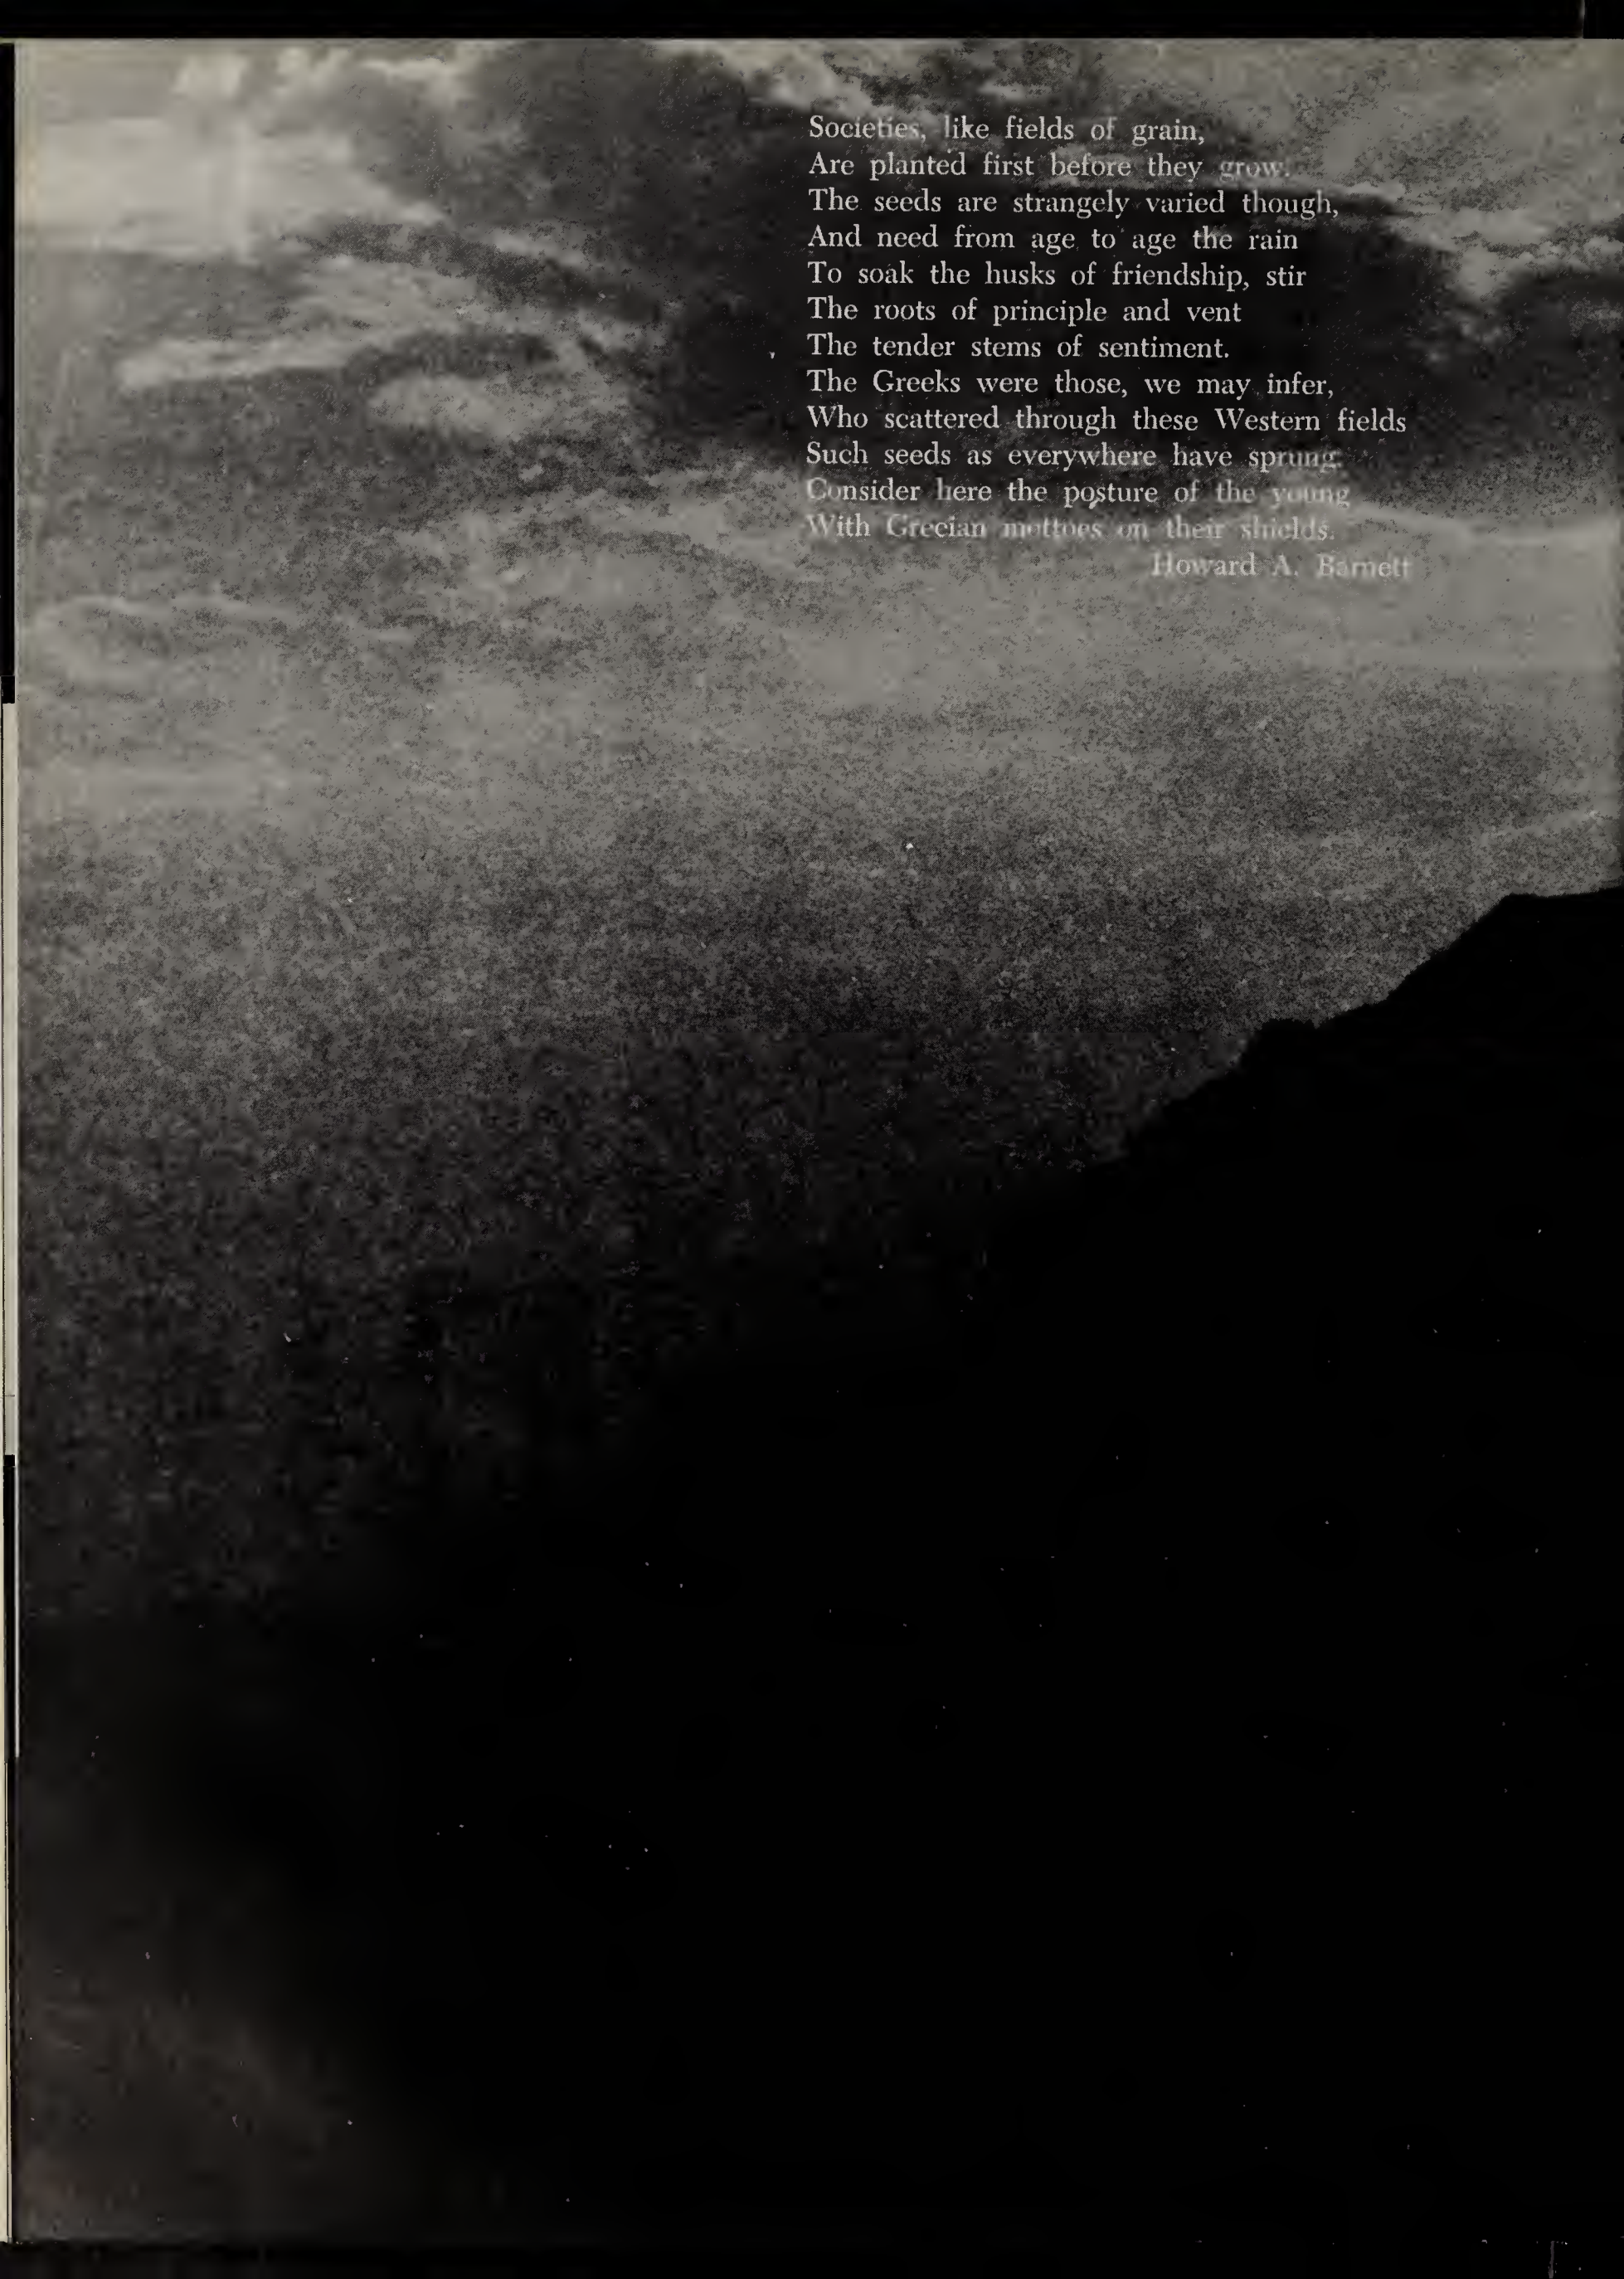

Me!—Teach the Navy "the art of loving."?

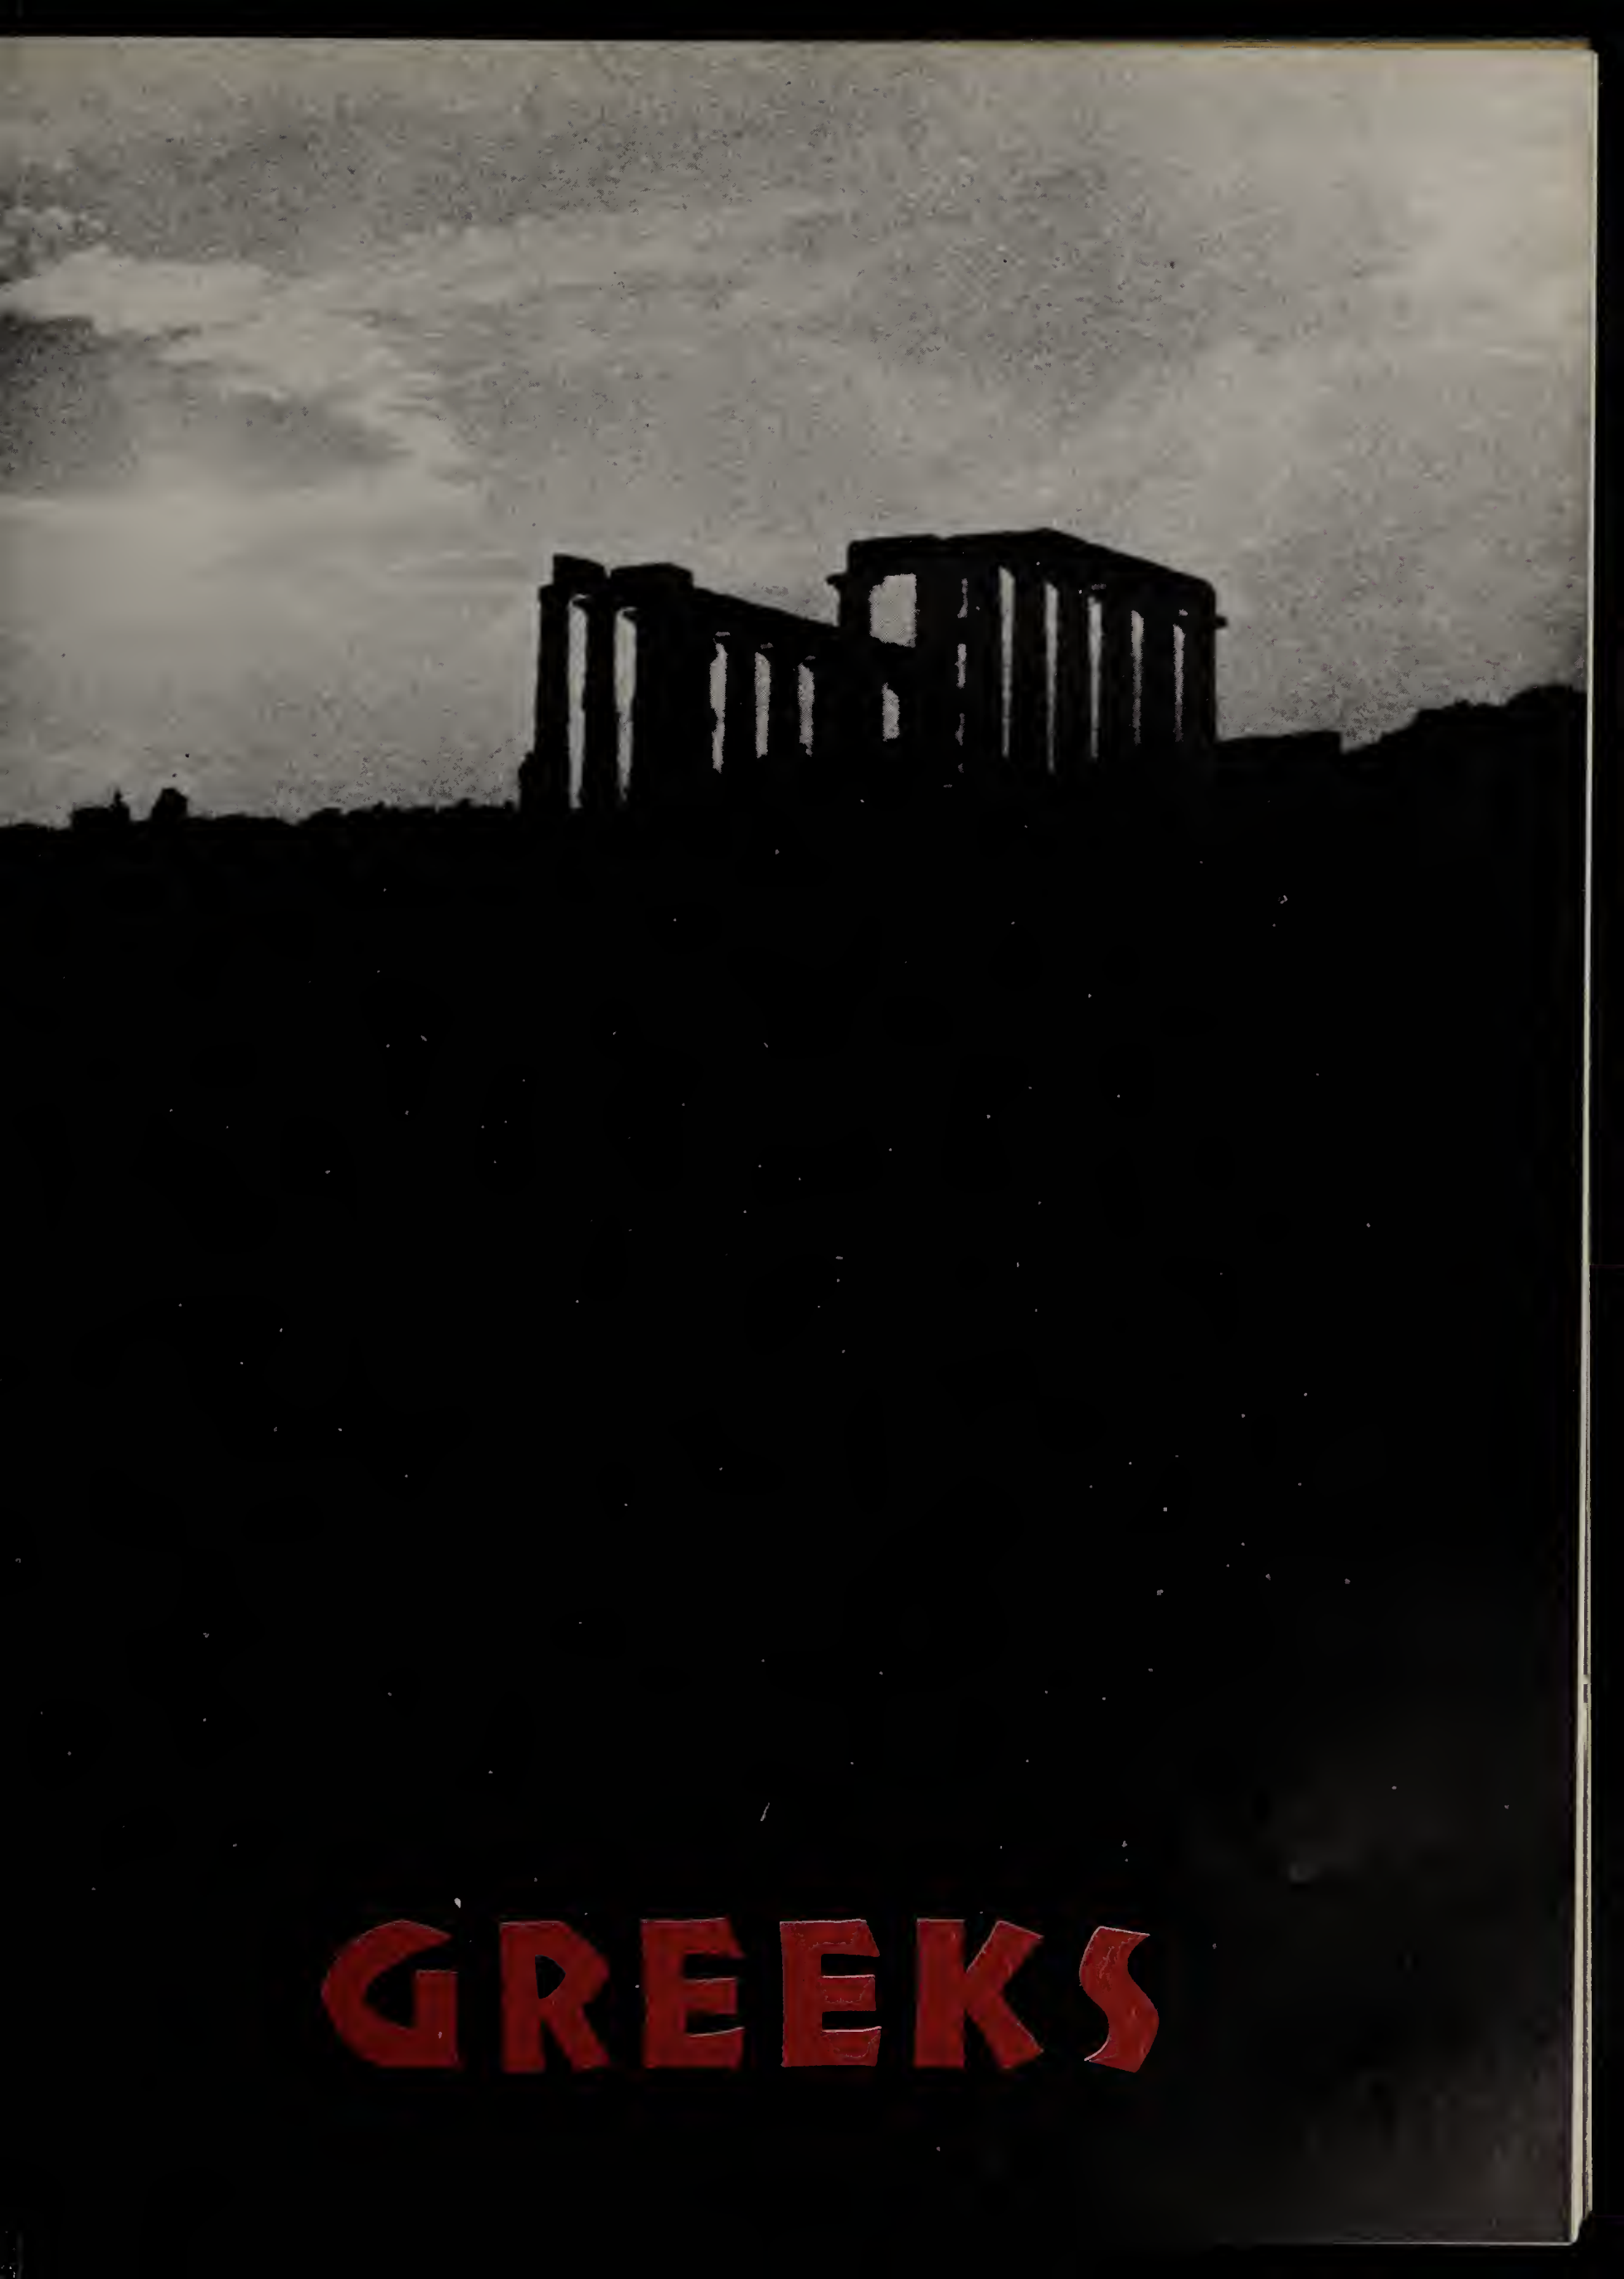

This ain't no experiment, it's a love potion.

Societies, like fields of grain,
Are planted first before they grow.
The seeds are strangely varied though,
And need from age to age the rain
To soak the husks of friendship, stir
The roots of principle and vent
The tender stems of sentiment.
The Greeks were those, we may infer,
Who scattered through these Western fields
Such seeds as everywhere have sprung.
Consider here the posture of the young
With Grecian mottoes on their shields.

you have arrived
the dreams hopes and ambitions of decades before taking shape parents skimping hoping forcing pushing fathers proud mother crying missing losing cutting releasing at last free away chained to a new life adventure toil desperation hope another day new ...
